Need Volunteers for M.S. Drive

An urgent call for volunteers to make the August 19 MS March a success in Torrance was issued today by Mrs. Donald Jodrey, local chairman for the Multiple Sclerosis door-to-door appeal.

"In order to insure success of the Multiple Sclerosis March, we need additional scores of volunteers to devote just two or three hours of their time to ring door-bells the evening of August 19," said Mrs. Jodrey.

Emphasizing the vital role volunteers play in the annual MS Hope Chest fund-raising drive, the local chairman disclosed that the Southern California Multiple Sclerosis is the only agency which devotes all its resources in providing desperately needed services for victims of crippling multiple sclerosis.

"In addition," she stated, "the MS Society here helps to finance a national research program to find a cure for the, as yet, incurable crippling and wasting disease."

The MS Society relies entirely upon its volunteers to put across

Wilder Comedy at El Camino Opens Tomorrow

The history of the human race is the theme of Thornton Wilder's fantastic comedy which will play at the El Camino College Campus Theater August 8 and 9. It is a tribute to the persistence of man against all odds, it is a play which Richard Lockridge of the New York Sun labeled "part circus and part comically mad allegory."

Winner of the Pulitzer Prize in 1942, "Skin" is the novelty of this or any other theater season, climaxing an unusual month of dramatic fare at the college. It is staged by one of El Camino's most noted graduates, Paul Coml, and enacted by a cast headed by Carmelita Mann, K. Lyle O'Dell, Barbara Foster and Leah Lowry.

its program of medical and clinic aid for patients, patient counselling, public education, information service to the medical profession, and research, she added.
